

Great London Swim

Saturday 15th August 2009
The Royal Victoria Dock

Take part in London's 1st ever 1 mile, open water mass participation swim!

August 2009 will see the launch of the inaugural and much anticipated Great London Swim. The Great London Swim looks set to be just as popular as the inaugural Great North Swim and it is predicted that entries will fill quickly so make sure you enter soon to avoid disappointment.

The one mile course will be set against the magnificent London skyline, with views of Canary Wharf and The O2 arena providing the perfect backdrop for thousands of swimmers as they take to the water.

In keeping with the tradition of other Great Swim's, world class elites will lead the field from the front covering the same course as the masses.

Start Time: From 9am onwards groups of approximately 200 swimmers will enter the water, with a 30 minute interval between each group.
